Overview: Celebrating and honoring ALL FAMILIES of all constructs. Whether a child is raised in a household with a mom and dad, a mom and mom, a dad and dad, a single parent, a grandparent, an aunt and uncle, a foster family, an adoptive family, a family new to our country, a family with a parent incarcerated, a family with a parent deployed overseas... ALL FAMILIES count equally.

We will have guest readers share children's books that illuminate what makes our stories uniquely ours and totally universal!

We will also share book lists and cookies!
